QUEENCLIFF TO SORRENTO

Take a trip around Port Phillip Bay. Enjoy views of Melbourne and Port Phillip Bay from the West Gate Bridge. The height above the water is 58 metres and the total length of the bridge is 2,582.6 metres. It is the third-longest in Australia and is twice as long as Sydney's Harbour Bridge.

We shall visit The State Rose Garden at Werribee for a toilet stop and morning tea break, and a visit to view Werribee South vegetable garden and see Wyndham Harbour Marina as we drive by, then drive thru Werribee to get back onto the Freeway to Geelong.

We will then head to Gateway Hotel Corio for Buffet Lunch at Noon. After lunch we shall drive you to a picturesque waterfront of Geelong overlooking the Bay.

We head down the Bellarine Peninsula (Westside of Port Phillip Bay) to the lovely seaside village of Queenscliff, which is bursting with reminders of its past as we drive through the streets to view imposing Victorian-era hotels dripping with intricate iron lacework, charming old churches - some enjoying new life as galleries - and quaint fishermen's cottages. You will also find the smallest house in the main street of Queenscliff Please look out for house number 60.

We catch the ferry across the narrow entrance to Port Phillip Bay, known as "The Rip", to Sorrento. The trip across the Bay at this point takes 40 minutes. You can enjoy the great ocean views from comfortable passenger lounges. Refreshments are available on board (own expense)

Another seaside village, Sorrento is one of the most popular and well-known holiday escapes on the Mornington Peninsula (East side of Port Phillip Bay). Soon after we reach Sorrento, we shall be heading back to Melbourne.
